ABSTRACT

This directory lists, alphabetically by state and city, the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the organizations and individuals who are able to reach minority groups to tell them about job training and job opportunities. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the National Urban League, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the National Newspaper Publishers Association, the American GI Forum, and the national offices for the black fraternities and sororities made their membership lists available for this directory. In the back of the book there are listings of Apprenticeship Outreach Centers and State Apprenticeship Agencies. (Author/CS)

PREFACE

This Directory lists, alphabetically by State and city, the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the organizations and individuals who are able to reach minority groups to tell them about job training and job opportunities.

This edition of the Directory lists black universities and colleges and black fraternities and sororities. In the back of the book there are listings of Apprenticeship Outreach Centers and State Apprenticeship Agencies.

Material for the Directory was collected by the field staff of the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, Manpower Administration, U.S. Department of Labor. Henry von Avery of the Equal Employment Opportunity Staff of the Bureau assembled and compiled the material.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the National Urban League, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the National Newspaper Publishers Association, the American GI Forum, and the national offices of the black fraternities and sororities made their membership lists available for this Directory.

Appreciation is expressed to these organizations and the many other organizations and individuals who helped in this compilation.
